

THE 2016–2017 ST. MARK'S RECITAL SERIES

Given

Friday, September 16 • 7 p.m.

Kristen Chen, piano; Trina Hodgson, cello; and Kathryn Shaffer, flute, present a jazz-influenced concert featuring fresh, new music by current-day Russian composer Nikolai Kapustin, who is best known as a jazz pianist. Also on the program: tangos by Argentinian composer Astor Piazzolla and music by Czech composer Bohuslav Martinu.

Drea Pressley

Friday, November 18 • 7 p.m.

Spanning centuries of a musical treasure trove that includes the Spanish Baroque, medieval Galicia, and traditional Celtic folksongs, Cantigas d'Amigo: A Spanish and Celtic Tapestry of Song is a musical feast for the ears. Join Drea Pressley — mezzo-soprano, hurdy gurdy, celtic harp — and guest artists on a musical journey through Ms. Pressley's Spanish and Celtic heritage.

Inverness Chamber Trio

The Inverness Chamber Players' roster provides a tremendous amount of flexibility allowing them to present a large range of chamber music repertoire from the Renaissance to the most adventurous contemporary compositions. In this concert, three of its members — Jeb Wallace, horn; M. Brent Williams, violin; Doug Jurs, piano — explore the rich offerings of Brahms, Duvernoy, and Sargon.

Mezzo-soprano Kerry Ginger and tenor Erik Gustafson present a varied program of solos and duets, including works by Monteverdi, Brahms, Britten, Schumann, Schubert, Rossini and Fauré, wrapping up with selections from The Mikado by Gilbert and Sullivan!

NOW in its 12th season, the St. Mark's Recital Series is one of Durango's not-to-be-missed musical series.

The recitals are on Friday evenings at 7:00 p.m. and are followed by a reception where you can meet the artists and mingle with other area music lovers.

All recitals are held in the historic sanctuary of St. Mark's Church. Because seating is limited and some recitals have sold out, advanced ticket purchase is recommended.

Won't you consider providing additional support to the series? Your tax-deductible gift helps us continue these beautiful events.
